THE LATE DE. STEWART.

A meeting washeld in the City Hall yesterday afternoon to consider what steps should be taken to perpetuate the memory of the late Dr. Stewart, Colonial Secretary. Hon. P. Ryrie presided. The CHAIRMAN said—Gentlemen, you have heard what the object of this meeting is-to decide what form the memorial to the late Dr. and has frequently done so at public meetings- Stewart shall take. For me to attempt to expatiate on the high qualities of the late Colonial and point. There are very few subjects of gen. Secretary is hardly necessary here. We all knew him as a public officer and I think nearly other engaged his attention, but he has always every person present can testify to his high abilities as a public official, to his untiring zeal in the work of the Colony, and to his urbane mannor in seeking to further the interests of whoever applied to him for assistance. His private character you know was most praisoworthy, generous and friendly to all, in fact I may say that he was the friend of everybody and everybody was a friend of his. His lamented death came as a calamity to this Colony. He was still in the prime of life with plenty of work in him, but he was a victim to that fell disease to which even the strongestanccumband we have to regret a great loss to the Coony. It was considered advisable to restrict the amount of subscriptions to this memorial with the object of bringing it within the reach of all, and the subscriptions amount so far to $1,000, but I think, if, as has been suggested, something in useless. > The Hon A. P. MACEWEN, DEAR SIB .- Since my return to Hougkong last month I have read your speach in the Legislative Council on the 4th December, and the disonssion thereon relative to the proposed Cable

Hongkong, 13th January, 1890.

As the estimate of cost named by you (£100 perience, and as I gather that the public have not clearly noted the distinction, both in cost and in other respects, between the first proposed proposal to carry the cable via Borneo, I now wish to set forth as clearly as possible a statement of the cost and other considerations involved by the two schemes. First of all, my Directors would wish it to be distinctly understood that their terms for both plans have not been put forward on their own initiative but have been given in response to inquiries addressed to them by the authorities and others interested in the establishment of a line of tale. graph between Singapore and Hongkong which should be purely under British control.

In 1885 and again in 1888 inquiries were ad dressed to my Directors as to the terms upon which the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company would establish and maintain a direct cable between Singapore and Hougkong. In reply the Company stated that they were prepared to establish and maintain such a line for a yearly subsidy for 20 years of £15,000. The steamer distance between Hongkong and Singapore is 1,450 knots, to which must be added say 10 percent to allow for inequalities in the sea bed. detours to avoid shouls, fooks, &c., and for the necessary shok to enable the cable to be raised to the surface for repairs. The length of a direct cable may be estimated therafore at 1,600 knots and the cost at £250,000. As the existing lines are amply sufficient to carry a considerable increase of the present traffic, there was no prospect of revenue from To balance 10th May, 1889 the new cable, and the yearly amount necessary to cover interest, working expenses, maintenance. and amortization was found to be £30,000 for a period of 20 years. Making with the Company's 6/24 10,250 A total of £41,000 The totals for both schemes have been stated t the lowest point consistent with the harest ousiness considerations.

With reference to the cost of submarine sable, it may perhaps be admitted that some time since a cable might have been obtained for £100 per knot, which might be serviceable for short distances of say 200 or 300 miles, provided the sea bottom and other circumstances were favourable. Even this class of cable, however, cannot now be obtained for that sum, as the price of gutta percha has nearly doubled, and that of iron and the cost of labour have considerably increased. Such a type of cable, however, would be ntterly unswited for the long lengths involved in either of the schemes under consideration. It is a well proved and fundamental scientific fact that the speed of signalling decreases inversely as the square of the length of the cable, that is, by doubling the length, the speed is reduced to one fourth. It is obvious, therefore, that for long distances a cable must be made whose speed capacity is proportionately great, a result which is obtained by using a greater quantity of copper and gutta percha, all of the best quality, and the cable must be of the very best manufacture.

It is also obvious that if a cable is put down which works but slowly when perfect, any partial defect which may appear, and fore the trial defects unfortunately do frequently appear, will render the cable almost or entirely type of cable which has a sufficient missing of efficiency to enable traffic to pass even when it is defective, until the repairing steamer is able of the increased cost of material and manufacture, a suitable cable for either of the proposed made by the same gentleman is beneath con- less there is a stop to the use of his name he routes cannot be obtained under the figure at tempt. DISCOVERY OF A DEED TO PROPERTY. WORTH NEW YORK, 23rd December.

Charles Roll of Newark accidentally broke an old mirror four weeks ago. It had been given tothim years ago by his grandfather. The glass shivered to atoms and an old age-yellowed piece of parchment was disclosed to view for the first time in a century and more as was proved by the nature of the document. Some very interesting statistics have been presented in a paper on the accumulated wealth 1,000.00 of kingdoms, read by Robert Giffio, the famous 103.70 statistician before the Royal Statistical Society. He places that wealth in round numbers at £10,000,000,000 giving England £308 a head; Scotland £243, and Ireland £93. Comparing the three richest intions of the world Giffin gave the wealth per head as follows: Great I ritain £290, France £190, and the United States £160.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S PLANS. LONDON, 21st December. The opening of Parliament by the Queen in person is associated with the expected announcement of her Majesty's intention to make a visit of State to Ireland and a progress of the conntry in the summer. It is believed that this would be attended with agreeable results, and it cannot be longer put off; if it is to reflect, as is 128,967.71 undoubtedly the purpose, any glory upon Balfour and Salisbury.

A new volume of the Queen's journals is now being prepared by Sir Theodore Martin. It contains an outline of n novel written by the Queen, and a selection of some original verses from the same royal pen. Some of these verses had been set to music by the Prince-Consort. PRESENCE OF MIND OF THE QUEEN REGENT

During the performance at the opera-house this evening an accident to the electric light machinery caused a panic, a cry of fire having been raised. A STRIKERS' PLOT. LONDON, 18th December. Thames police and the considerable addition to their number have led to some extrao dinary 2,524.52 rumours. The one that is best supported by 245.94 circumstances is that they have received information of a plot to blow up a coal-laden vessel from Hamburg or Bremen. The gas companies have lately found it difficult to obtain coal from Euglish mines on account of the boycott to which they are subjected when coal is imported in German bottoms and unloaded by German crews. Unable to gain access to these foreigners the strikers, it is understood, determined to make such an example of one of the vessels as to deter shipowners and sailors abroad from engaging in the husiness again. The companies have offered a large reward for the detection of any one engaged in an attempt to carry out such a nefarious project.

osition of the French Government with regard to the conversion of the Egyptian preference loan from 5 per cent. to 4 per cent. stock, as proposed early in the year by Sir Edgar Vincent. The Temps reports that the Government has intimated to the British Minister that it will no longer insist upon the evacuation of Egypt England as the condition of its assent to the conversion of this portion of the Egyptian debt. but may consent if England initiates the process of evacuation by withdrawing part of her troops, and if it is agreed that the profit of the conversion shall be applied to the purpose of strengthening the Egyptian army. It has been calculated that the saving to the Egyptian treasury by this reduction would be equal o $800,000 a year, and this money spent upon the Egyptian army would admit of an important reduction in the effective force of the British army without endangering any interest that the presence of that army protects.

As the Marquis of Salisbury has hithorto efused to negotiate upon the ground that military occupation and the debt were parts of the same question, and as England claims that the retirement of her troops will be followed by the overrunning of Egypt from the Soudan, th prospect for the acceptance of the Franci proposition is not promising.
